Application for regular bail. The petitioner is the third accused. He, along with the other accused, faces allegations under the Immoral Traffic (prevention) Act, 1956. He was allegedly one of the persons found available in a premises which was raided. He was allegedly a customer in such place where a brothel has allegedly been run by the first accused. The petitioner was arrested on 31/8/2007. He continues in custody from that date.

2. According to the petitioner, the allegations against him are false. He was in love with one of the girls who were taken into custody from that premises. They were together in the said premises. The petitioner has not committed any offence. At any rate, the petitioner who has remained in custody from 31/8/2007 may now be enlarged on bail, it is prayed.

3. The learned Public Prosecutor does not oppose the application for regular bail. Two of the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail by this court. Subject to identical conditions as were imposed on the co-accused, the petitioner can also be released on bail, submits the learned Public Prosecutor. I am satisfied that the petitioner can also be released on bail subject to appropriate conditions.

In the result, this petition is allowed. The petitioner shall also be released on bail on identical conditions:

i) He shall execute a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two solvent sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate.

ii) The petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation before the investigating officer between 10 a.m and 12 noon on all Mondays for a period of one month from this date.
